The technical drawing illustrates the construction of a bag. It includes a perspective view on the left and a side elevation view on the right. The perspective view shows the bag's internal structure with labels for components like the top handle, shoulder strap, and various straps. Dimensions include a width of 100 cm and a height of 427 mm. The side elevation view shows the bag's profile with a width of 427 mm and a height of 100 mm. A hand is shown holding a pen, pointing to the side elevation view.

A semi-circular color chart, often used in photography and design, featuring a wide range of color patches arranged in a fan shape. The patches transition through a spectrum from blues and greens on the left, through yellows and oranges, to reds and purples on the right. A small, rectangular color calibration strip is placed over the lower right portion of the chart.

A collage of various colored and textured fabrics. The top row shows smooth, solid-colored fabrics in shades of yellow, orange, red, pink, and blue. The middle row features a variety of textures, including a coarse grey knit, a red woven fabric, and a green woven fabric. The bottom row displays smooth fabrics in shades of green, pink, and blue, alongside a grey woven fabric. The fabrics are arranged in vertical strips, showcasing a wide range of colors and textures.
